Nothin' but Net offers a competitive and recreational basketball league from 1st and 2nd graders to improve their basketball skills. The intent of this league is for the young players to get a feel for the sport of basketball and to develop a love for the game. For this league, the rules vary depending on whether your team is in the competitive or recreational league. We expect that you will utilize your best judgment in being a good role model to these young children and instill in them what good sportsmanship on and off of the court is all about. We ask that you repeatedly stress to your parents & spectators that this is solely an instructional league, regardless of whether choosing our competitive or recreational division. We hold the coaches responsible for the conduct of your players, parents and spectators at all times.
