Penalties:

Ejections:

A player or coach that is ejected during or after a game by a referee will automatically miss the next game. If a player is ejected for fighting, that player is permanently banned and will be removed from the team's roster. If a player is banned for fighting, the entire team will be removed from the tournament with no refund given.

Spectators:

Officials will give one (1) verbal warning to the offending spectator. If the spectator continues to disrupt the game, the official will eject both the offending spectator as well as the athlete. In addition, the official will also call a technical foul on the offending team and throw the ball out of play. If there is a 3rd offense, the team will be required to forfeit the game and be removed from the tournament with no refund given.
